

Wow & Woe

By Shane W Roessiger

Prophecy for 2011

Received on December 28, 2010

Wow and woe: Wow to those who know Him and obey Him. Woe to every evil worker of iniquity. Changing of captains, lieutenants, majors, some generals forced to retire, to those who have refused to shift into the new skins. The rebellious will dwell in a dry land. This year is crucial for repentance from dead works. The old wine is being drunk with drunkards, the World. The rancid fermented wine, lukewarm, compromise, tradition, heresy, unholy, all unrighteous motives will be exposed. Those who have shifted or are seeking to move with God --- those who have their swords sharp---will be ignited with a flame of fire, with the new wine of truth, with righteousness and joy in the Holy Ghost. God is raising up sharp, sharp swords in the land. Fearless soldiers of truth who will begin to see a house that is built on the sand and is built on the rock. The storms that are coming to this nation will be expected by those who know Him. They will be securely fastened, prepared, rooted and grounded in love. God's love. Many will have to run out of the houses built on the sand in fear for their lives. They will run to the houses on the rock where fire will consume them and revive them from the storms of compromise, rebellion and false love. The ship of the nation of the United States of America is sinking. There are many holes in the framework; Water has been flooding this ship. Men have been bailing it out, but the water is overtaking it to the point where man cannot handle keeping it afloat. It will begin to sink, and you will see it. The facade will be coming down. Many false prophets will be exposed. At the same time, His bride will be standing tall saying, "This is the way. Walk in it now." Sharp swords will arise. It will seem like the church has become a legalistic institution. But it is love.

The grace of God will be greater than ever before. However, many have been convinced that God has changed, but He is the same yesterday, today and forever. The biggest poison in the shift will be pride. Not being able to let go of their own kingdoms like a captain who goes down with the ship so shall they go down with their kingdoms made of golden idols and manmade works. They will do everything in their flesh to maintain what God has no longer ordained. Rebellion is witchcraft so God is removing witchcraft out from among His bride. The single-minded will see prayers being answered, increasing like never before. At this same time, the glory of God is arising. God is delivering His people at a rapid pace: Those on the threshing floor. Do not get distracted by the phone or the doorbell. The enemy is trying to distract us. God is starting to spark fire around the globe for the final awakening. Some will speak criticism. Do not fall into that trap. The enemy will always come to kill, steal and destroy. God must have all the glory. Stay little in your own eyes. Financially, the faithful are about to receive a withdrawal from heaven. Double minds will continue to wonder why? Why? Why? Repent. Give to God what is God's, and He will give what He has promised. He never breaks covenant. If anyone is out of covenant with God, repent. Line up financially. Many have been sowing in a religious system that God has blown out the candle already. Many have been sowing from a misled compassion for people or sowing to bread snatchers using the system of religion in vain. Sow into the power and anointing of God. Many have been depending on Uncle Sam or on big pockets in their congregations more than depending on the supernatural provision of a God that can put a coin in a fish's mouth. Repent and come into the faith and power of God. We are at Mathew 6:33, and to be righteous is to be in right standing with the King. Many have been warned. Exposure is imminent. Do not look to the natural as your source. It is an empty well borrowing from enemy sources. Break all alliances from a stimulus and beggar mentality. Stand on the ROCK. This system is evil and broken and bankrupt.

Being taken captive as slaves to an ungodly, anti-God, anti-truth, anti-love, anti-compassion, anti-loyal, anti-peace, anti-holy, anti-protection, anti-giving, anti-righteous, anti-Christ system! Everything looks okay by the media and false prophets. But it is a sinking ship. Get in line with kingdom policies. Get in rank, line up. Love will be overtaking you. It will only be your best life if you are in Him. Apostasy is a slippery slope where many have convinced themselves or have been made to think that God is of their own making. God will show them the way to the floor of love. Woe to the money changers. The Lord is making a whip right now. Clean your house or the bridegroom will clean it for you! Those connected to the vine will see the difference between those who are following signs & wonders and the ones who have signs and wonders following them. Look to the hills from where your redemption comes. Daddy is pouring His grace, His love, and His compassion out in buckets to the humble. He will begin to do a big thing in little things. Always remember: Whom God is for, who can be against? It's time to step out of the natural and into the supernatural. Healing and miracles will begin to increase. Do not look to them. Keep your eyes on Jesus. Build no monuments. They bring death. Those who are in the Truth will have right standing and shall see the rain. God is raising up rain-makers.

Can you see it? Speak this over yourselves: 1) I will change. 2) I will walk in holiness. 3) I will drink the new wine. 4) I will not be rebellious. 5) God do not let me go. 6) God forgive me. Help me to change. 7) God, wash my eyes so I can see. 8) Jesus, shine your light and search me, the depth of my soul. 9) Jesus, cleanse me from all unrighteousness. 10) Make me a flame of fire for you, a sword sharp and new. 11) God, send me. I will go where ever you are.

Love you and let's take 2011 steps towards the righteousness of God.
