

2012: Here Comes the Bride

By Shane W Roessiger

November 26, 2011

Here comes the bride, all dressed in white...Where is the groom? Inside the bride and standing right beside her.

Calling all saints to depart from iniquity and return to your first love. The anti-Christ is setting up His Kingdom for the final showdown where light overtakes darkness, where the saints come marching in total victory!

Twelve, the number of authority, the number of the apostolic, the number of the tribes of Israel, the number of the apostles, the number of government, the government of Jesus Christ, the chief commander, the One who is appointing, anointing, releasing the ones He has had in the cave in training and preparation, those being equipped for battle.

A new breed is arising, the burning and shining ones, those who are set apart, coming out of the wilderness with the voice of triumph, with the voice of power, with a new sound following the rhythm with the lion restoring the sons back to the fathers, exposing false doctrines in the church, exposing names, groups and false prophets, those who are standing in inspection with their belts buckled and shined. Boot camp is over, but in full session. Good bye, limousines. Good bye, mansions. Good bye, $3,000 suits. Good bye, teachers teaching God's inheritance in a wrong way: "to get themselves blessed." Good bye, Babylon! Meet the Kingdom of God! True riches are being released on those who are willing to give up this life.

As Saul's body is already decomposed, old wine is being exposed. David and His tabernacle are being resurrected. The new thing will be on display. The old thing will be made right again. Back to the basics. God's people are tired of religion, tired of being slaves to big ministries, tired of being manipulated by Jezebel and her false prophets, tired of hearing Eli, tired of going in circles, tired of being entertained, tired of being taught by the letter, by old winos, but are ready to move in the Spirit and are ready to be trained for war!

Forerunners are being released who are preaching the fullness of a gospel that was stolen by thieves and wolves and hirelings. Charlatans will be thrown to the wolves. Laid down lovers of the Anointed One being anointed, being ordained by the Holy Ghost, not by some dead religious organization or legalistic institution straining at gnats and swallowing camels.

Pastors starting to pastor and not being dictators submitting to the apostolic. Evangelists more than ever will start evangelizing the World and not evangelizing the church over and over. Teachers teaching God's beloved to be in character with Christ, to deny themselves and to take up their cross. Prophets teaming up with their apostles. Prophets being the sword of the Lord and the rod when needed as well as the blessing and releasing of God's heart. The apostles setting order in the bride and church of God. Moving in signs and wonders more and more, taking authority over regions and nations. False apostles will be found liars and exposed as well. As the shaking is increasing, purity is arising. Truth is prevailing. Humility will be the key to total victory. Pastors will have a staff with a crook and will run after the one instead of playing number's games with advertizing and entertainment. True shepherds, not looking for a name and fame. Their eye will be on the pearls of great value as these offices start to truly be put in order. Then they will train the entire body in the nine gifts of the Spirit. Not false prophets of Baal training believers to prophecy for money, running around prostituting their gifts for their needs and their wants, manipulating sheep. But true believers prophesying on the streets, getting words of knowledge on their jobs, bringing the light in darkness, not running after a title but running after the lost. Armor bearers being let out of shackles from child slavery. Seeing true repentance preaching coming back to the Church.

The voice of the Father being heard by the sons. Eye solvent finally being put on their eyes. Those unequally yoked with unbelievers will be loosed in business and in the church. The poverty mentality being revealed in this nation. Those pastors and leaders who are focusing God's inheritance on stimulus's and pharaoh's charity and all their liberalism trying to taint the bride to be depending on the god of this world, manipulating gain by fear and not Jehovah Jirah. Cultural lines will be crossed. New wine is truth, power, boldness, repentance, persecution, supernatural invading the natural. The World will see the difference between an unbeliever and a believer, a Catholic and a Christian, a harlot and a bride. Fear of man and their titles and their religiosity being vanished by righteousness. Unity will come year by year, masses coming out of denominations, old wine, joining the bride and the new wine. And man's kingdoms will be swallowed up by the earth and a bride arising.

A church without a building. A church without a hierarchy. A church without a dictator. A church with the love of the Father. Glowing garments full of oil lighting the way. The few; the humble; the bride. The body of Christ fitly joining together, taking her place, finding her space. A light on the hill being a lighthouse to the lost. Smashing the altars in the church, altars of Mammon, altars of fame, altars of Babylon, altars of Jezebel and Baal. The altars of sacrifice and true incense going up into His nostrils, a sweet savor to Him that paid the price, getting what He bought and deserves: All of His body.

The World will get darker and the liberalism anti-Christ spirit will be pushing immoral laws, setting itself up, continuing to try and bring in the one government and one religion, one false god. Natural disasters will continue and increase. San Francisco and its perversion will quake. Sodom and Gomorrah will shake. Riots, anarchy, increasing in Europe and in the States. Secret coalitions in darkness, fueling the unrighteous, setting up its system. Russia, China, Iran, Syria, Egypt and every enemy of freedom being empowered by man and its desires for power and evil under the command of the god of this world. Israel will take out its enemy and cancel its plans, setting back the attacks for some years. Muslims will be trying to invade the USA with their false doctrines and lies. Radicalism is true to any believer, meaning they are following the way with all their hearts whatever their religion or book says.

Fear will plague the unbelievers and reaction will come. The stock market will continue on its course of steady decline. Mass media will still be spewing lies, but through all this many will meet Christ Jesus the Lord. The dollar bill will continue to decline, not because it's bad, but because of the anti-Christ and his agenda and plans because waste and bad management are being done on purpose. Socialism and anti-Christ spirits are not going to back down. The policy of getting everything for nothing is the new way of life. Scams, schemes and corruption is the American way now. Now morals are declining and God's hands are removed.

All in time, we will shine. The bride will overtake the darkness in full time. Joy will fill our hearts, transforming people. Not a culture or a country, but a kingdom in darkness making war on evil. It's time. God says: "Pick your side or He will pick it for you!" Every secret sin must manifest in the light. Fall on the rock so the rock does not fall on you. God is in the perfecting business. Sons just like their Papa. Come on out! Come on in! So Christ can come out of you and His glory will fill the earth. His hope will invade the nations. Will you be that seed that falls to the ground and brings life? It's all in or all out. No more playing the harlot! His bride is coming...

In Him,

Shane W Roessiger
