

Alignment in the Body: Church, line up" God says

"Now, the time for an apostolic alignment"

June, 2008

By Shane W Roessiger

God has various gifts anointing in one place, coming together for edification, exhortation and correction – one teaching the other. Do all prophecy? Do all teach? Do all??? There are people God has anointed and has/is bringing into specific places. Gifts are just sitting and being wasted. They are there to build up the Body. There are people who need what others have. People are coming to different places where they can't stay because they are not getting what they need when they come together. If pastors were traveling evangelists then they would be operating in what God has ordained.

Gifts have to go to places because they are bringing something that is needed. "Church, line up," God says, "Now is the time that we need apostolic alignment." God has given all different gifts, mantles, and anointing for the work of the ministry and the equipping of the saints. When leaders hide the gifts in the back room, they are saying, "Hey Jesus, we don't want you to operate here. Just sit down and listen."

When we don't allow full operation of the Spirit, this is exactly how God sees it. Man's order must be shut down and full alliance must take place for regions to be shaken. Something else the Lord shows me is this: apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor and teachers.

The five fold ministry. Pastor--only one time spoken about in the New Testament. Other ministry gifts are spoken more than others. Why is this? We always think the pastor is the leader of the church. Why are we so programmed, including me? I'm guilty of this myself. Saying, "Pastor," so freely. Ephesians 4:1 is the one place it is mentioned. Paul is clearly saying in Eph 4:2-7, with lowliness and meekness, longsuffering, forbearing one another in love: one body and one Spirit - one faith and one God. One is given the grace according to the gift. So everybody is trying to be a pastor. We have created this to be a high calling. None of these gifts are better or higher than the other. They reveal Jesus altogether--without this we look like a one-headed freak. The Bible reads in Ephesians 4:16, " From whom the whole body fitly joined together compacted by that which every joint supplies according to be effectual working in the measure of every part, making increase of the body to every part, unto the edifying of itself."

So we need all to move in God. Not one preferred over the other. A high calling should be whatever God has called you to. "Come on, Church" When the enemy gets a pastor with a lukewarm message, a compromising message, a message that always tickles your ears with such a positive message – this is because the enemy was able to deceive and destroy the one part. Because Jesus was not allowed to bring all of Himself in and Jezebel is now polluting the Body. Now let's go to I Corinthians 12:28. God has set some in the church first apostles, second prophets, thirdly teacher, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversity of tongues. I'm sure it's all by revelation.

Back up I Cor. 12:24 for our comely parts have no need; but God has tempered the Body together, having given more abundant honor to the part which lacked so there should be no schisms in the Body, that the members should have the same care for one another.

Well, we certainly have enough pastors in the Body of Christ. Not so much helps. So let's honor the helps. Let's carry their bags. Wouldn't it be funny if we walked around saying, "Hello, Helps" "Good morning, Gifts of Healing" "Gifts of Healing, have you seen Miracles, today? Go ask Pastor or maybe Apostle if they have seen him. But do you mean Miracle Jonny or Miracle Teddy?" Wouldn't that be dumb? That's what we are doing, and the enemy started it all.

That's why Jesus washed his disciples' feet. He was prophet. He was pastor. He was an evangelist and so on. He said that they wouldn't understand, but there will come a time when they will understand-- now is that time. Come on Church. We need to trade our titles for some revelation and some compassion. We need to follow the entire scriptures. Not just one we take out of context and make our own. God told me that when the churches yield to the gifts, it is the same as yielding to Christ Himself, and they will have all the glory, power and anointing that has never been seen before: the latter and the former rain. Don't think that you really have something if you are operating in your religious man-made structure. It will surely pass away.

We, as a church, are told in I Cor. 12:31 to covet earnestly the best gifts. But do not covet the carrier of the gift. We love every pastor. We need you all so much and all you do for the body of Christ. We honor you for that and for all your time. However, this is a call from the throne of God to set order in the house of God-- not to pick on anyone--but to open the eyes of the blind, the religious. If you are offended at this word then maybe you need to hit your knees and ask Him why!

We love you,

Shane W Roessiger